

LEARNING ENGLISH

When I came to California, I was 12 years old. I didn't know English and when I went to school, I was scared because most of the people spoke English and I did not understand anything. I remember that I didn't have problems with math because I knew math. My problem was writing and speaking. Little by little I started to learn English.

By Irene Nieves, 2nd grade

